Chapter 1 by PixieInsane

All odds against us, everytime my parents find out, they take me away. I love him, with all my heart. They don't understand, they don't know him like I do. They see a liar, I see my future husband. They see a potential threat to my life, I see the one man who makes my life better.

I've told that story to many people. I don't think they understand. He loves me and I love him. Once I turn 18 years old, I can be with him for as long as I want.

Ruby and James forever, the tattoo says. My parents would kill me if they found out about it. Just like everytime I start talking to him again, they'll be dissappointed.

They don't know how great he is, but that doesn't matter. All that does matter is that I am the one who loves him with every fiber of my being.
